Chintaman Ganesh Temple: Sehore is famous for Chintaman Ganesh Temple. This lord Ganesh Temple is very old and historical place in the time of Maharaja Vikramaditya. Sehore was commonly known as Siddhpur in the kingdom of Vikramaditya. Chintaman Ganesh Temple is situated in the west-north of Sehore. The temple was later constructed in 155 BC. Half of the idol still under the ground in this Ganesh temple. BajiRavPeshwan first got the assemble hall constructed and reinaugrated the temple. It is situated on the angles of Shree Yantra. Sehore was previously known as Siddhpur which is found in holy books (Purans). Sehore is 39 Km away from state capital Bhopal towards south and on Bhopal-Indore highway. Its height from the sea level is 1500 ft. to 2000 ft. It is also connected to Western Railway from Bhopal to Ratlam. Sehore stands in the foothills of the Vindhya Range in the middle of Malwa region. The Upper Lake of Bhopal is a huge water reservoir that lies in the Western part of the city.

The lake is considered to be the biggest lake in Madhya Pradesh. Seeing this "Bada Talaab" one goes absolutely speechless. The lake is the major man-made drinking source for the residents of the city.

This beautiful water reservoir is said to have existed since the 11th century. It has a huge earthen embankment built across the Kolans River. The lake is visited not only for sight-seeing but also for customary beliefs as locals think its waters have the power to heal skin ailments. Apart from this, it is a favourite place among adventure lovers as it offers various sports activities such as paddling, rowing, and motorboats to indulge themselves.
